Hey there Reader,

Keala Kanae here... and my goal with this "Handbook" is to give you simplified instructions for launching your very own "Freelance Marketing" career - right from the comfort of your home.

Of course, a handbook is inherently limited in it's ability to deliver content of this magnitude which is why I strongly encourage you to click here and register for our upcoming Online "Master Class" where I'll obviously be better able to illustrate the concepts contained within the following pages.

Nevertheless, whether you register for the training or not, I've done my best to at least get you started.

First, allow me a moment to introduce myself:

Listen, I wasn't always one of the world's most sought after speakers and trainers in this industry. Instead, it's not that long ago that I was barely eeking by every month.

In 2012, I found myself working in a coffee shop earning just over minimum wage and struggling to get by. In fact, at 29 years old, I was living in my mom's spare bedroom because I couldn't afford all of my bills and the rent anymore.

I had even sold my car because I couldn't afford the gas, insurance, and miscellaneous repairs any longer.

Anyway, long story short... in August of 2012 I had hit my proverbial rock bottom after my financial situation forced me to give my girlfriend of 7 years a used purse that my mom was about to take down to Goodwill for a friend of hers.

In other words, in August 2012, I literally gave my girlfriend someone else's trash for her birthday.

It was at that moment that I made a solemn oath to transform my financial situation and I vowed to read every book, buy every training, and search under every rock if that's what it took...

Needless to say, contained within this document is a breakdown of what I discovered that has radically transformed my reality.

Today, things are quite different.

In the last 3 years, my girlfriend and I have taken a total of 28 vacations (here's photos from a few):

All while earning a fairly substantial income.

Here's a photo from the back office of one of my marketing campaigns showing $702,767 of income for 2016 alone (and over $1 Million earned overall)... And that's just ONE income stream!

Here's a photo of me buried in over $143,427 worth of commission checks from another promotion I launched in early 2016:

Listen, I'm NOT trying to brag or boast. Showing you this stuff is actually quite uncomfortable for me. However, it's the best way I know of to show you what's possible.

Does that make sense?

Great! Now let's get started on the content...

STEP 1:

The first thing we need to do is find an audience that either has a problem that needs solving or a desire that must be fulfilled.

This is as simple as using the Google Keyword Planner to find

Keyword Planner

The screenshot shows the Google Keyword Planner interface. At the top, there's a search bar with "Lose weight" and buttons for "Get ideas" and "Modify search". Below the search bar, there are tabs for "Ad group ideas" and "Keyword ideas", with "Keyword ideas" selected. A red box highlights the "Phrase we're researching" field, which contains "Lose weight". Another red box highlights the "Related search phrases" section, which lists several keywords: "how to lose weight", "weight loss", "how to lose weight fast", "lose weight fast", and "weight loss diet". A third red box highlights the "Amount of monthly searches" column, which shows values like 135,000, 165,000, 165,000, 74,000, and 14,800 respectively. The table also includes columns for competition level (Low, Medium), suggested bid ($4.38, $2.99, $3.40, $3.33, $3.48), and ad impression share.

Keyword (by relevance)	Avg. monthly searches	Competition	Suggested bid	Ad impr. share	Add to plan
how to lose weight	135,000	Low	$4.38	—	»
weight loss	165,000	Medium	$2.99	—	»
how to lose weight fast	165,000	Low	$3.40	—	»
lose weight fast	74,000	Low	$3.33	—	»
weight loss diet	14,800	Low	$3.48	—	»

out what sorts of things people are searching for.

In this example I chose the phrase “Lose Weight”.

The Keyword Planner then shows us a number of related searches as well as how many people are searching for that keyword phrase each month.

What does this all mean?

Well, in this example, it shows us that hundreds of thousands of people are looking for various weight loss solutions.

And you can search for data on any problem/desire you can dream up.

Here's a few ideas off the top of my head:

“How to stop anxiety”

“How to discipline children”

“How to make money online”

“Weight loss recipes”

“How to grow prize winning tomatoes”

You're only limited by your imagination ;-)

Of course, the higher the search volume (the numbers in the second column), the more money there is to be made because more people are looking to buy.

Alright, on to step 2...

STEP 2:

Okay, now that we've found a rather large audience with a problem that needs solving, we just need to find a product/offer to promote to them.

The screenshot shows a web-based marketplace interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links: Welcome: kealak | Knowledge Base | Partner Offers | Marketplace | Blog. Below the navigation is a toolbar with DASHBOARD and SETTINGS buttons. A red arrow points from the text "Click on 'Marketplace'" to the Marketplace link in the navigation bar. Another red arrow points from the text "Enter your keyword to search for relevant products" to a search input field. The search input field contains the text "lose weight". To the right of the search input is a magnifying glass icon. On the left side of the main content area, there's a sidebar titled "How to Find Products to Promote" with two numbered steps: 1. Browse Categories on the left. 2. Use the Find Products box above to search by keyword. Below these steps is a paragraph of text. To the right of the sidebar is a cartoon illustration of a man in a white shirt smiling. The background of the main content area has some blurred text and graphics.

That's where Affiliate Networks step in (you can find a short list of them in the Resources section of this handbook and even more by googling).

Basically Affiliate Networks connect product creators with marketers (like you and I) who want to promote their product and earn a commission for doing so.

In this example, I'm going to search the Clickbank Affiliate Network. In this case, on the 3rd page of results we find a product that pays out a decent sized commission.

Assuming this is a product we want to promote, we simply click the “Promote” button next to the offer which will give us our Affiliate Link

Affiliate Program: HopLink for 'soups777'

ClickBank pays you 75.0% when you sell SOUPS777's product. To refer a customer

our unique affiliate link

The Affiliate Link is essentially how the product creator tracks which affiliate makes a sale.

In other words, all sales that come from the above link will be accredited to us and qualify us for commissions on that sale.

Now, on to step 3...

» Click Here To Register For Our Online “Master Class”! «

STEP 3:

Okay, we have identified an audience with a problem and an offer to promote to them.

Next (and this is most important piece) we create a Sales Funnel that enables us to sell as much of this product as humanly possible... mostly on autopilot!

Here's the Blueprint (again, I strongly recommend you click here to register for our Free Training Workshop because this part will otherwise be difficult to understand):

Would you like to take us up on our $10,000 GUARANTEE?
» Click Here To Register For Our Online "Master Class"! «

Let's break it down:

The circle above represents the audience we've identified. Notice that inside of that audience is an image labeled "Ad".

This represents the advertisement that we'll deliver to that audience (we'll get to that part next).

When someone clicks on our ad they're going to be taken over to our "Squeeze Page".

What is a Squeeze Page?

The Squeeze Page is an extremely simple website we'll use to capture the contact info/email of the person who clicked on our ad (we'll get to why in a moment).

The Squeeze Page pre-frames the offer and gives the visitor an incentive to hand over their contact information.

For this example our Squeeze Page headline might say...

Free Video Reveals...

How To Instantly Drop 10 Pounds In The Next 10 Days With Simple Soup
Recipes You Can Copy Right Now!

Enter your email below for instant access...

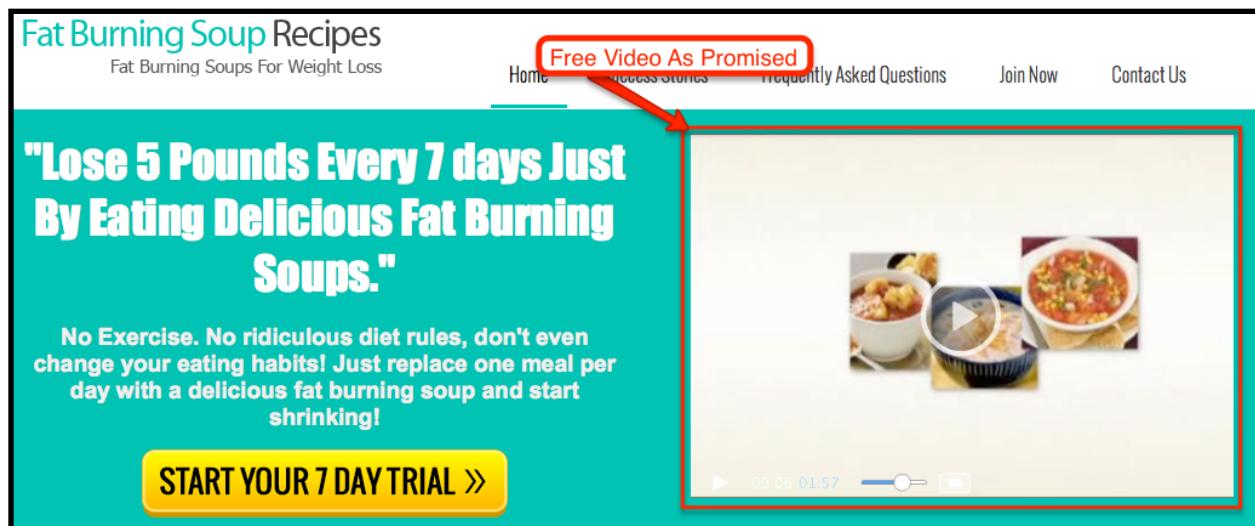

It goes without saying that we'd only use that headline if the offer can fulfill that promise which means doing a bit of

Would you like to take us up on our $10,000 GUARANTEE?
» Click Here To Register For Our Online "Master Class"! «

research first (NOTE: never lie in your marketing - it ruins the industry and makes you look like a douche).

If the person who clicked on our ad and is now on our Squeeze Page is serious enough about getting the proposed result, they'll likely enter their email address for more information.

As depicted in the above Blueprint, we'd then automatically send the visitor to our Affiliate Link which sends them to the sales page for this offer and gives them a chance to buy:

You'll notice in the Blueprint that there are two arrows leading away from the Squeeze Page.

One linking to the "Offer" (we've already covered that one) and the other linking to the "Autoresponder".

Would you like to take us up on our $10,000 GUARANTEE?
» Click Here To Register For Our Online "Master Class"! «

What is an Autoresponder?

Simply put, an Autoresponder is an email marketing database. When someone enters their email for more information regarding the offer we're promoting, it captures that email address and allows us to send more marketing material to that prospect.

It's called an "Autoresponder" because it emails that recipient on autopilot.

Think about this:

The chances of someone landing on the sales page of the offer and choosing to buy right there on the spot is probably slim, right?

I mean, how often do you stumble upon an offer online and instantly pull out your credit card and buy right there on the spot.

Not that often, right?

Well, the same is true for almost everyone else.

So, by capturing that prospect's email, we have the ability to send them follow up emails - on autopilot - that gives us multiple opportunities to sell the offer (rather than just once).

In other words, before we ever place the Advertisement about this offer, we've created 7 - 10 follow up emails in the

Would you like to take us up on our $10,000 GUARANTEE?
» Click Here To Register For Our Online "Master Class"! «

autoresponder that will go out for the next 7 - 10 days after someone enters their email for more info about the offer.

Those emails might contain:

- Testimonials from other users of the offer
- More "in depth" information about the offer
- Objection handlers
- Answers to Frequently Asked Questions
- Bonus incentives for ordering
- Etc...

ALL of those emails inevitably link back to the offer page giving that recipient another chance to purchase...

...and when they do, we get paid a commission!

Keep in Mind:

This ALL happens on autopilot. You set this up just once and technology takes care of the rest...

...and you can earn commissions whether you're working, sleeping, out to dinner with friends, or even on vacation!

SUMMARY:

As stated earlier, there's obviously a lot more to this than can possibly be conveyed in a simple handbook like this one...

...which is why most of our readers choose to click here and register for our Online Training Workshop where we can better teach you how to implement all of this.

With that said, it's my sincere hope that you at least have an idea about how to get started and see that there are REAL, LEGITIMATE options for you to earn an income WITHOUT a job, a boss, or some boring schedule that reigns over your life.
